

Connecticut Fires Halted

BOSTON, May 2 (AP)—After battling through the night against forest fires in Eastern Connecticut, firemen and volunteers today brought them under control. A fire in Killingly cut a swath three miles long and one mile wide.

The New York Times

Published: May 3, 1942

Copyright © The New York Times